

The U.S. Geological Survey has now pinpointed the exact location of the epicenter of the Oct 16th earthquake which hit Waterboro, Maine around 7:12 PM. The epicenter was located about 1.5 miles from Waterboro Town Hall between Roberts Ridge Road and Deering Ridge Road (image below).

See "A" in the Google Satellite Image Below

