

Gordon Littlefield is an incumbent candidate for Waterboro's Board of Selectmen currently serving as the Vice Chairman. He has served for 12 years as a Selectman, is a long time Waterboro resident and lives on McLucas Road with his wife Gaye. Gordon graduated in 1967 from Thornton Academy and obtained his Associates Degree in Law Enforcement from SMTC. He is a Viet Nam veteran and served as an Air Force Staff Sergeant. Gordon spent over 40 years in law enforcement culminating as Deputy Chief for the Sanford Police Department. He later served as a civil service deputy for the York County Sheriff's Department. During his career Gordon was an instructor at the Maine Criminal Justice Academy, was an accident reconstruction specialist receiving his training at North Western University, Traffic Management School, trained at the University of North Florida Tactical Command, graduated from FBI Leadership School and The Law Enforcement Institute of Law Enforcement Management at Babson College and also is a registered drone pilot.